

The Professional Embalmers' Association of Ireland (PEAI) recently launched its recreated website - www.professionalembalbers.ie.

PEAI is an independent association dedicated to the professional embalmers in Ireland. The association is growing stronger in practice and advancements as well as in numbers!

PEAI is strengthening its commitments to the Public, the Care of the Deceased, the Association and the Government and these are reflected in the PEA Code of Ethics. The Professional Embalmers' Association of Ireland (PEAI) Code of Professional Conduct is designed to address the commitment of each member in five key areas:

1. Commitment to the Family- Members have a moral commitment to serve each family in a professional and caring manner, being respectful to their wishes and confidences and being honest and fair in all dealings with them.
2. Commitment to the Care of the Deceased- Members have a moral commitment to care for each deceased person with the highest respect and dignity and to transport, prepare and shelter the remains in a professional, caring and conscientious manner.
3. Commitment to the Public- Members have a moral commitment to the public to offer their services in accordance with the highest principles of honesty, fair dealing and professionalism.
4. Commitment to the Government- Members have a moral commitment to maintain strict compliance with the letter and spirit of all governmental laws and regulations that impact the deceased, the bereaved family, the embalming profession and the public health.
5. Commitment to the PEAI- Members have a moral commitment to promote, participate and support the Professional Embalmers' Association of Ireland in its mission to help all members enhance the quality of the embalming service to families.

Apart from the professional standing in being a Member, PEAI members receive extensive professional and personal benefits.
